EMANCIPATION OF THE SOUL™

living from your true self

These unique sessions will be tailored to the individual(s) and assist in re-gaining a deep, loving and respectful connection with one another whilst providing intense emotional, physical and energetic clearing. It is not necessary to have your mother or child partake in these sessions if you simply wish to heal the sacred feminine, your inner child as well as your mother aspect within yourself.

You will uncover the deeper meaning and root cause for problems experienced in your relationship to your mother or child and release the mental, emotional, spiritual or physical blocks that go along with it. Daniela will also explore any karmic patterns from past lives associated with the issue. Sessions usually include various healing techniques that can include past life regressions, connection to ones angels, guides and loved ones, emotional and physical healing as well as various other techniques and exercises that Daniela has found extremely effective in healing "mother issues". Please note that the child has to be at least 16 years of age to fully benefit from the sessions and grasp the concepts.
